This was unanimously passed, and so ordered. The following request from the Kindergarten Section was then read by the Secretary: Mr. Hugh W. Caldwell, Secretary State Teachers Association, Chesapeake City, Maryland. Dear Mr. Caldwell: I am told that the Kindergarten Section is not officially recognized as a branch of the Maryland State Teachers Association, and that it cannot be so recognized until a formal request is made. May I trouble you to bring this before the manner and at the right time? Association in the proper The kindergartners of the city are anxious to be properly represented. Thank you. Very truly yours, (Signed) WINIFRED WELDON, Chairman, Kindergarten Section. The Association decided that this request did not necessitate amending the Constitution, as Section 3-a of the Constitution provides for this Kindergarten Section as a department of the Association. No action, therefore, was taken on this request. The Secretary then read a letter that he Superintendent Albert S. Cook, as follows: Mr. Hugh W. Caldwell, Secretary, State Teachers Association, Elkton, Maryland. My Dear Mr. Caldwell: had received from State The State Board of Education respectfully requests that the President of the State Teachers Association appoint a committee on Teachers Pensions, to confer with a committee of county superintendents on the same subject. The latter...
