AMANDA S QUEST (HARDBACK)

Kingdom of Torrence, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. D M Stoddard (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Back Cover: Leaving her friends behind to ascend Mount Thoradan, Amanda journeys alone towards the northern realm to recover the legendary Horn of Valhalla and bring it to the Guild of the Crimson Pommel. With less than a year remaining she races through the barbaric lands of the followers of Odin to complete her blood-debt, promised as payment for healing the half-Elven druid princess. Only the completion of her debt will save her and her friends, but Amanda s quest holds challenges beyond her comprehension. As events escalate, wizards, druids, knights, and warriors become entangled in deadly conflicts and two dragons become bitter enemies. Inside Dust Cover (hard copy only): - Front Flap On the created world of DendUr, the reader will travel across the continent of Ak ron through lands where Zeus and Odin are followed and a new religion, the Order of One, confronts the old ways. In the troubled kingdoms of men and Elves, magic is limited out of fear and dragons are thought to be a thing of the past. Events are unfolding that will bring change to the kingdoms of Ak ron. The prophecy foresees the coming of a second hero. It is a time of heroes and great deeds. - Back Flap The reader will meet a legendary bard who spins a magical tale of Amanda s struggles into his song. He sings of individual battles and armies wars, filled with the cold of steel and the power of magic. Wizards cast spells and druids draw power from nature as warriors wield heavy blades, but nothing is as it seems. The ballad recounts deadly conflicts between...
