Resource Publications (OR), United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .As a freshman in college, Rachel Murr found herself trying to decide which campus social group to join: the gay and lesbian advocacy group or the campus Christian fellowship. She knew it couldn't be both. For the next fifteen years she held onto the belief that she couldn't be both gay and Christian. When the pain involved in trying not to be lesbian called for a change in theology, she came out to her evangelical church. Conflict ensued. Unnatural is a collection of stories--not only of the harm religiously-inspired negative messages about homosexuality inflict, but also of redemption. Rachel uses her own story as well as personal interviews with ten other queer women and one female-to-male transgender man to tell how they were judged, lectured, kicked out of homes and families, subjected to reparative therapies, and even assaulted. Some faced homelessness, depression, suicide attempts, and pervasive shame. Still, they fought to keep their faith alive. Each demonstrated an Unnatural ability to forgive, love, believe, advocate, and heal. Rarely, if ever, does one have an opportunity to read unguarded, confessional stories by members of the LGBT community about the triumph of their Christian faith over the daunting rejection, and sometimes outright flagrant oppression, directed at them by other Christians. This book gives every one of us that precise opportunity . . . though, of course, each of us must first have the courage to dare to take it. --Phyllis Tickle, author of The Great Emergence Unnatural skillfully and courageously weaves stories from the author's research to unpack the complexities of religious and sexual identity development, how each powerfully impacts the other. They illuminate the...
