Austin Macauley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Other Anti-Semitism, Emil Saleem Shehadeh, In anti-Semitism we usually imagine the Jews to be the victims. In this book, the author shows the Jews to also be the aggressor, alongside the Muslims, both of whom have for centuries persecuted the Christians of the Middle East, a forgotten but not insignificant Semitic entity. After a survey of history interlaced with personal experience, the author sets a challenge for the world at large, the Christians, Jews and Muslims to move and stem the rising tide of persecution of the forgotten Christians of the Middle East. The author shares a Semitic dream, based on tolerance, mutual respect, freedom of expression and the freedom to choose one's faith without fear or favor. Born to Christian Arab parents in Nazareth, Israel, brought up and educated in Kufur Yasief Yanni School, Israel, the author came to the UK in 1975, where he studied at St Andrews University obtaining a BSc(Hons) in Medical Biology, followed by an MSc in Biochemistry. In 1985 He moved to Glasgow University and after three years at the School of Medicine, he obtained his MB ChB. He qualified as a GP and member of the Royal College of General Practitioners in 1995. He then undertook some training in Dermatology and obtained a diploma from Cardiff University in 1997. Throughout this time, he has been an active member of the church and has maintained his interest in history since his school days.
