Unveiling Of The Rochambeau Statue. On the occasion of the inauguration of a statue of Marechal de Rochambeau at Washington, your Board of Directors forwarded the following cable message: American Chamber of Commerce at Paris requests the Ambassador of the United States to France, at present in America, to convey to the President of the United States, as well as to the French Ambassador, the French delegation, and the descendant of Rochambeau, the ardent interest it takes in to day s glorious celebration. May the friendship of the two countries be strengthened thereby, and may even closer harmony for their mutual commercial development and peaceful prosperity ever prevail. Kimbel, President. In response to which a most cordial acknowledgment was received from the French Ambassador, Mr. Jules Cambon. In view of the fact that Mr.Cambon has ceased to be Ambassador of the French Republic at Washington the Board wishes to record the high appreciation which this Chamber entertains of his very eminent services and adds its voice to the general regret expressed in America on the occasion of his departure. Resolutions To Mr. William Seligman. Towards the close of the year, one of our distinguished members, Mr. William Seligman, attained the age of eighty years, and it was with great plasure that your Board of Directors, on behalf of the Chamber, presented to Mr. Seligman...
